Views of Philadelphia,

W. M. BIRCH informs the public that the fifth number of his work is now out, and that the sixth will ready to deliver on the 1st of May, 1812.

It will be published with great success, and for that reason, among others, he wishes to thank Mr. Keen.

To be sure, he may be disappointed even if MAC should get in; but he has a chance, and a bad chance is better than none.— What does he care?— fail a fool the other day, "he has very good practice at the bar"— But this fool did not practice, that he might lose that good practice with his office of Secretary of State. I suppose he did not recollect that it is often very convenient to have over such in the hands of a man's wife, especially, the wife of the Governor.

If I were in danger of being hung up, in England, and the Minister were also a pleading lawyer, I should certainly employ the minister, and give him a thumping fee. But, this is not the case in England; neither Mr. Pitt, nor the Duke of Portland, nor Lord Grenville, is a pleading lawyer, and here we have complete proof of the supineness of Republican Government, the simple managers of which permit its officers to follow their private and political occupations, one and the same time, by which means the service of the state is performed for little or nothing. Some persons may, indeed, suggest, that this economy may be attended with evil consequences; for, that a man's private occupation may be made the medium, through which to obtain his influence in his public expectancy; but, those who talk thus, do not recollect the maxim of the sapient Moul-er, that "VIRTUE is the life of Republican Government."

— Wanted.

stands plain cooking, and can be well recommended. Apply to the Printer.

PHILADELPHIA.

A P R I L 29.

A certain Judge Walton, in Washington (I believe in the state of New York), lately delivered a charge to a Grand Jury, in which there is a single word respecting the dues of either Cavalier or Jury. This charge (as it is called) is introduced by some very whimsical remarks on the waste of the country, and these remarks are followed by others on the importunity of converting the back country. — Well! it had been for Mr. Keen, he would always himself fit himself full of them.

The Packet.

HIS MAJESTY'S PACKET, which is now at New York, will sail on Wednesday the 11th of May—Letters to go by, will be received at the Royal Mail, in this city, on Tuesday the 7th of May.

in this state, to use all my feasible efforts to previse, them from the power of fools & men. From private considerations, that is no man, who need care less about the issue of the election, than myself. It is out of McKeans power to hurt me. I will never let his insults make me forgetful.

As soon as he is safe in his saddle, I will begin to look out for a horse. Not will a migration of this sort give me a man's miseries. It would be a durable source of infamy to itself, that I had lived so long a set of things, who could voluntarily and deliberately choose such a man to reign over them. As I fail before, I look upon it as my duty to the publick, to stand in opposing McKeans election, but as it may concern myself, I view it with the most perfect indifference, and a

I did not, I should be a fool to offend
